What If?

What if I want to attend more than one conference track?

You can! There are several tracks offered during the course of the weekend. You can select one track to attend all three times or you can attend several different tracks.

What if I don't know which track to attend?

Participate in the track(s) that will best help you grow in worship leadership. You may choose to attend a track that will enhance your understanding of a ministry your church is already involved in. Or, you may attend a track to find out how to begin one of these ministries in your church.

What if I play an instrument but haven't been playing long enough to feel comfortable playing in the Praise Band?

You can attend the Praise Band track and observe the rehearsals to help you learn techniques that will assist you when practicing at home on your own. You can also sit beside someone who plays the same instrument and follow along in the music. You are encouraged to bring your instrument just in case you feel more comfortable once you have observed what's going on.
